

ISLAMI EMIRATE AFGHANISTAN

In FIGHT

No 13

ATTACK ON KABUL
KHOST: DAY AFTER DAY
DUTCH HELL IN HELMAND

ISLAMI EMIRATE AFGHANISTAN

In FIGHT

THIS ABSOLUTELY INFORMAL ISSUE FOR VISUAL SUPPORT
OF NEWS REPORT FROM EMIRATE AFGHANISTAN

In the name of Allah, the Merciful, the Compassionate

LAST NEWS:	PHOTO Desember – January 2010	3
	Mujahideen in Ghazni 23-01-10	44
	Puppet army sustains losses in Uruzgan	47
MAIN THEME	Attack on Kabul 18-01-10	53
	Attack on Kabul 26-01-10	73
	Attack on Lashkar Gah 29-01-2010	81
	Dutch Hell in Helmand -2009	87
	“Black Hawk” Down - Addition	96
	Khost: Day after Day	104
	ANTI-IED robotic system	113

...But [even so], if there are a hundred of you, patient and persevering, they will vanquish two hundred, and if a thousand, they will vanquish two thousand, with the leave of Allah: for Allah is with those who patiently persevere. [8:66]

Last News

British invader (Lance Cpl) killed 20 December 2009 in Sangin, Helmand

Helmand, 17 December 2009

Helmand, Nawa, 24 December 2009

Kandahar, place of blast, 30 December 2009

30-12-2009

Military vehicle of invaders destroyed in Kandahar

Military vehicles of invaders destroyed in result of a powerful explosion near center of panjwai district, Kandahar. According to reports, the explosion occurred at around two o'clock this afternoon (2009-12-30), when the enemy patrolled in the area. Enemy vehicle destroyed by blast completely, and all on board were killed. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi (Informal translation)

Canadian invaders killed 30 December in Kandahar, 1 January 2010

Jordanian invader killed in Afghanistan, 2 January 2010

Three American invaders (Army Sgt, Army Spc) killed in Afghanistan, 4 January 2010

British invaders (Rifleman and Sapper) killed 31 December in Helmand, 5 January 2010

American invader (Army Spc) deadly wounded 26 December in Afghanistan, 5 January 2010

26-12-2009

Explosion near Kandahar; invaders receive casualties

In Kandahar's Arghandab district, the NATO-led invaders sustained deadly casualties on Saturday. The enemy patrol was going over a bridge In Chrar Bagh's Kuchni Ghazi area of Arghndab district as it was hunted by one of IED attacks, reportedly, some of the trained dogs have been killed in the blast.

15 Nato invading terrorists killed in Helmand

Saturday afternoon 26-12-2009 at around 3 pm local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan with IED's blew up a patrolling tank of the American invaders in Helmand province, in the blast the enemy tank was destroyed and twelve American terrorists were killed. According to another report, Saturday afternoon 26-12-2009 at around 3 pm local time, the Mujahideen in two explosions targeting a joint foot patrol of the Nato invader and their puppet army terrorists in Gereshk district of Helmand province, the the two blasts three invading terrorists were killed and three puppet army terrorists were wounded. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

A patrol of American invader ambushed and a petrol tanker destroyed in in Kunar

Saturday night 26-12-2009 at around 8 pm local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan ambushed a patrol of the American invading terrorists in Panjshir district of Kunar. The ambush lasted for thirty minutes, however the number of terrorists killed and wounded could not be confirmed. According to another report, Sunday morning 27-12-2009 at around 8 pm local time, the Mujahideen burned a petrol tanker of the invaders in Asadabad district of Kunar province. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

27-12-2009

Attack on U.S patrol in Kunar province

Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan waylaid U.S. patrol early Saturday night in " Punjsher" area of the province's Noor Gal district, however, their casualties number is unclear. Meantime, no Mujahids, by the grace of Allah Almighty, have been harmed during this operation. In a recent news, late Sunday night, the Mujahideen torched a U.S. oil tanker heading for the U.S. base during an attack that took place in "Shnay Ghunday" Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Puppet policemen killed in Nangarhar, 6 January 2010

Khost, 7 January 2010

Gardez , Paktia, 7 January 2010

7-01-2010

Gardiz martyr attack kills 4 soldiers including commander

Commander Bari, who was leading a military campaign in Charkh district, and was the primary target of the attack was killed along his brother and 3 other soldiers late Thursday afternoon in a martyrdom operation carried out by a brave Mujahid, Zulfagar. The report indicates the operation was conducted by a lone martyr bomber in "Kabul bank" area of Gardiz town, Paktia province, adding that the area was blocked off by the enemy in order to prevent people from taking a close look at the site of the explosion. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Evacuation of killed and wounded invaders, FOB Tagab-Kutschbach, Kapisa, 8 January 2010

5-01-2010

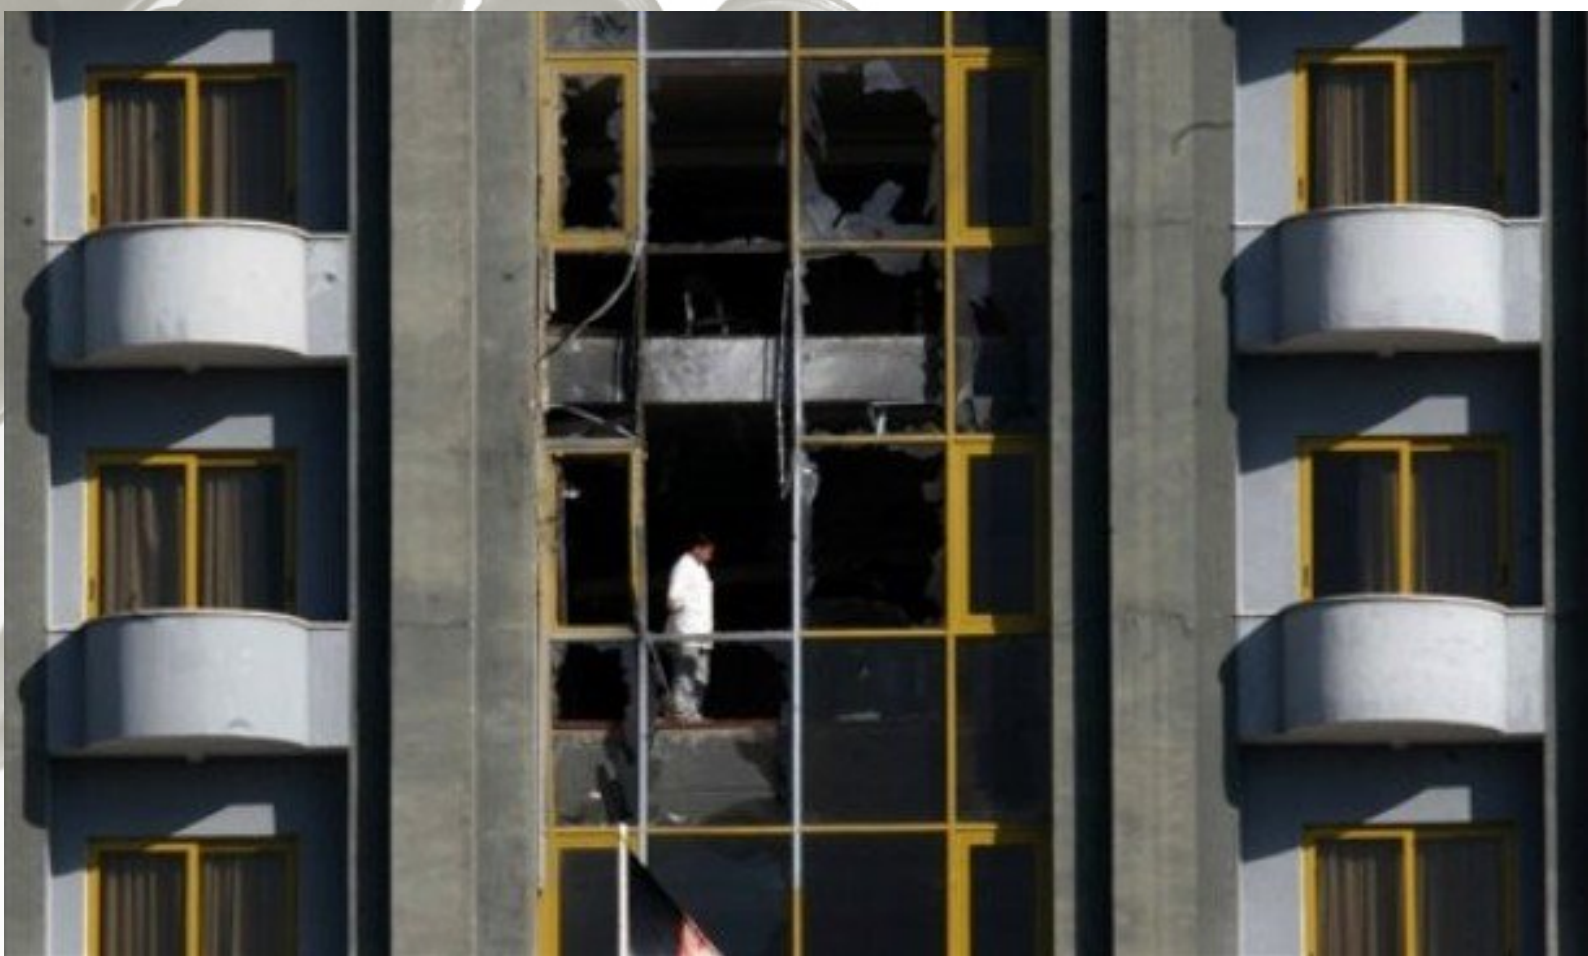

Heavy fighting in progress in Tagaab

Heavy confrontations broke out between the Mujahideen and the French invaders on Tuesday at "Jalo Khelo" area in Tagaab district, Kapisa province. According to the report, the fighting erupted while the French soldiers were on a mission to launch an offensive against Mujahideen early Tuesday, resultantly, the enemy's advance was pushed back after 3 French soldiers were killed during the fighting whose corpses were left behind at the war zone. Meantime, the enemy mounted another attack an hour later which was in progress till early Tuesday afternoon. In another news, 2 French soldiers were killed on Monday during a confrontation with Mujahideen who forced the French soldiers to retreat. However, two Mujahideen were wounded and another martyred during these operations. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

10-01-2010

French forces' advance pushed back in Tagab

There are reports from Kapisa that the French soldiers' offensive against the Mujahideen resulting in a face-to-face combat was pushed back on Sunday, in the province's Tagaab district. More than 3 French soldiers were killed and a number injured during a 2-hour long encounter breaking out in Mir Khel area of Tagaab district in early afternoon hours of Jan. 10. At last, the French forces were forced to retreat who later carried their casualties through helicopter. However, 2 Mujahids have received injuries during the combat. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

US consulate building after rocket attack, Herat, 9 January 2010

10-01-2010

American consulate attacked in Herat

The U.S. consulate in Herat came under rocket fires on Friday. According to the details, at least 5 foreign nationals were killed and 1 U.S. personnel seriously injured in the attack of the 3 rocket strikes landing within the consulate located in Panj Sitara Hotel (five star hotel) in Herat city. The eyewitnesses said the facility of the U.S consulate was badly damaged. In fact, the consulate has recently been based in the five star hotel in Herat city where the U.S diplomats have carried out covert political activities. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

11-01-2010

Missile attacks hit provincial headquarter in Herat

The headquarter of the Herat province came under missile strikes late Sunday night. According to the details, 3 missile strikes hit within the governor house, causing the personnel and others, based in the facility, serious casualties. A number of the Afghan and foreign guests, whose motive has not been clear yet, are said to have been within the facility as the attack was mounted in the late night hours of Sunday. Similarly, the other day, the U.S. consulate was, too, attacked by the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

*US consulate building
after rocket attack,
Herat, 9 January 2010*

10-01-2010

7 members of intelligence service killed by blast near Kabul

At afternoon 11:40 (2010-01-9) (7) intelligence members were killed near Kabul city. According to report, the enemy suffered losses when their vehicle hit by landmine of Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate in Paghman, Kabul. Cars were completely destroyed, killed personnel were taken to Kabul. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid (Informal translation)

Car of governmental personnel near Kabul, 9 January 2010

CIA agent killed 28 December in Khost, 9 January 2010

British invader (Lance Corporal) killed 15 December in Helmand, 12 January 2010

American invader (Lance Cpl) killed 9 January in Helmand, 12 January 2010

American invader (Marine Lance Cpl) killed 10 January in Helmand, 12 January 2010

Car of puppet police, Ghazni city, 13 January 2010

13-01-2010

Ghazni blast takes lives of 4 soldiers

Four policemen including a police officer were killed on Wednesday when their ranger vehicle was hit by explosive devices in the center of Ghazni. According to the report, the incident occurred in Blan Si area of this town in Ghazni province, in which the enemy's vehicle was left on fire. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

14-01-2010

Attack on a military patrol of Polish invaders in Gilan

At second hour of noon yesterday (2010-01-13), Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate attacked military patrol of Polish invaders near the center of Gilan district. Ambush inflicted material and spiritual losses to enemy, but there is no accurate information so far. Directly clash with the enemy lasted for half an hour, no any losses among Mujahideen. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid (Informal translation)

American invader (Marine Staff Sgt) killed 11 January in Helmand, 14 January 2010

9-01-2010

Invader's tank blown up by IED attack

One of the U.S. military tank got destroyed late Saturday afternoon as a result of roadside bomb explosion happening in Helmand's district of Garm Sir. As per details, the U.S. military convoy was passing through Darwaishan area of this district as one of their tanks was hit by Mujahideen's planted mine. Similarly, also the other day, one of the foreign invader's tanks got struck by an IED blast in Kowshtah area of the same district. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

10-01-2010

The enemy suffered on Sunday heavy losses and casualties in a series of attacks and bombings in Helmand's districts of Musa Kala and Nawa. In the morning hours of Jan. 10, five NATO soldiers were terribly wounded in an ambush attack carried out by the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate in Musa Kala's Toghi area. In another news, a vehicle of Afghan army got struck by another roadside bombing on Sunday which was smashed into pieces, killing 4 Afghan soldiers instantly in the same area. Also on Sunday, 2 Afghan soldiers were killed and 3 seriously wounded when one of their Corolla vehicle got hit by a hidden IED in Nawa's Surkh Dowz area. The wounded were, reportedly, shifted to a U.S. hospital in the neighboring district, Garm Sir. Likewise, 5 Afghan soldiers were killed and 7 wounded later this day when their two vehicles were separately targeted by IED blasts in Nawa district. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

Invaders' tank blown up by IED attack in Helmand

One of the U.S. invaders military tank got destroyed late Saturday afternoon as a result of roadside bomb explosion happening in Helmand's district of Garm Sir. As per details, the U.S. invaders military convoy was passing through Darwaishan area of this district as one of their tank was hit by Mujahideen's planted mine. Similarly, also the other day, one of the Nato invader's tank got struck by an IED blast in Kowshtah area of the same district. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

12-01-2010

Mujahideen inflicted heavy losses in the ranks of the enemy in Helmand

Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate reporting the killed of six American invading terrorists in Nawzad district of Helmand province, on Tuesday afternoon. According to details, the American invaders forces yesterday night launched an air attack in Nawzad district against Mujahideen in the region, the Mujahideen counter attacked the enemy, which continued throughout the day. In another armed attack launched by the Mujahideen Monday afternoon (11-01-2010) which continued until late night, in which Mujahideen killed a number of American invading terrorists. News adds that throughout the day the enemy sent a number of tank to the field of battle, one of those tank was destroyed by an IED. Mujahideen in the region also added, at late night constant aerial bombardment continued by the American invaders in the region, next to a fierce battle on the ground. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

French invaders killed in Afghanistan, 15 January 2010

11-01-2010

Mujahideen kill 7 soldiers in Kapisa

At least seven soldiers were killed in ambush carried out by Mujahideen in Alah Saai district of Kapisa on Monday. According to the details, the French soldiers were on foot near the center of this district when they came under a surprise attack, resulting in a face-to-face fighting that lasted nearly 3 hours, in which 7 French soldiers were killed besides two Afghan soldiers, while one of the Mujahids sustained injuries during the combat. However, the President Nicolas Sarkozy confirmed the death only one French soldier. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

16-01-2010

10 French invaders were killed in Kapisa battle

At least ten French soldiers were killed in encounters with the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate in the Alah Saai district of the Kapisa province on Saturday. According to the from the Kapisa province, the confrontation broke out while the enemy was on combat mission against the Mujahideen as they came under the Mujahideen's armed attack, forcing the enemy twice, whose death toll reaches 7 or 10, to retreat. However, two of the Mujahideen were injured in the confrontations. Similarly, on Friday, the French soldiers were, too, forced to retreat in the province's Karam Khel district. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

22-01-2010

French base attacked in Kapisa

In the late night hours of Jan. 22, a base of the French troops came under the missiles strikes by the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate in the province's Tagaab district. According to the details, the Mujahideen fired missiles at the base, four of which landed in the facility of the base, causing the French soldiers huge losses and fatalities. According to the Jihadic officials of the Mujahideen, the same base had been attacked by the Mujahideen a couple of days ago. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

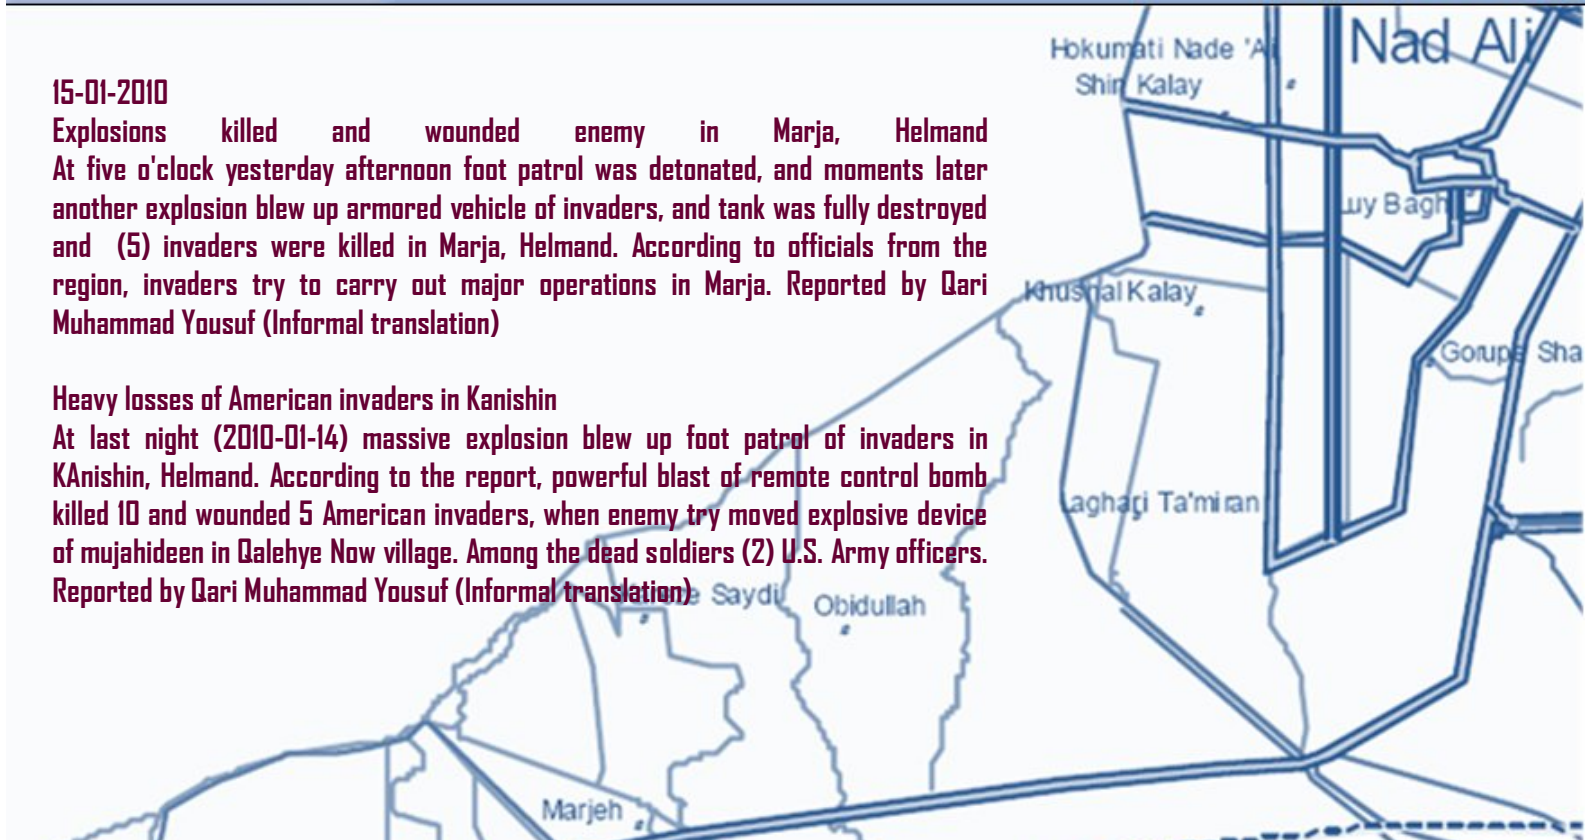

After rocket attack on diplomatic district, Kabul, 15 January 2010

15-01-2010

Explosions killed and wounded enemy in Marja, Helmand
At five o'clock yesterday afternoon foot patrol was detonated, and moments later another explosion blew up armored vehicle of invaders, and tank was fully destroyed and (5) invaders were killed in Marja, Helmand. According to officials from the region, invaders try to carry out major operations in Marja. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf (Informal translation)

Heavy losses of American invaders in Kanishin

At last night (2010-01-14) massive explosion blew up foot patrol of invaders in KAnishin, Helmand. According to the report, powerful blast of remote control bomb killed 10 and wounded 5 American invaders, when enemy try moved explosive device of mujahideen in Qalehye Now village. Among the dead soldiers (2) U.S. Army officers. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf (Informal translation)

American invader (Sgt) killed 14 January in Helmand, 16 January 2010

17-01-2010

District governor killed in Chisht-e-Shareef

Seven enemy including the district governor of the Chisht-e-Shareef, Abdul Qudus were killed during an ambush attack on Saturday night. According to the details, the attack was carried out near the center of this district while the district governor along with a judge, an intelligence officer and 4 gunmen were returning from an invitation party in the nearby village as they were confronted with an ambush. At last, the Mujahideen took the arms and ammunition of the enemy, while no Mujahids were harmed during the ambush attack. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

Policemen killed in ambush in Chesht Sharif, Herat 17 January 2010

Policemen killed in ambush in Chesht Sharif, Herat 17 January 2010

Kandahar, 17 January 2010

16-01-2010

Shah Wali Kot bombing destroys Canadian tank
One of the Allied forces' tank blown apart by roadside bombing in the Shah Wali Kowt district, in Kandahar province on Saturday noon. As many as 5 Canadian soldiers were killed who were traveling in the tank in Hasan Zaro area, on the road between Kandahar and Uruzgan provinces. An officer is ported to have been among the dead. In a recent news, also Saturday, at least 15 Canadian soldiers suffered loss of life and injuries while the enemy's foot soldiers were passing through a street in Pirzu village of Panjwai district as they encountered a planted land mine. According to the locals of the area, the helicopter was called for to evacuate the casualties, while the extent of their casualties is unclear. Reported by Qari Yusouf Ahmadi

17-01-2010

Heavy bombing inflict deadly fatalities on Canadians

The Canadian troops have suffered severe casualties and losses throughout Jan. 17 in a series of separate bombings in the province's Maiwand, Zhari and Panjwai districts. According to the details, in the morning hours of Sunday, about 5 locals soldiers were killed when the explosive devices exploded to their ranger vehicle on the road extending to Lako Khel area in the Zhari district of the Kandahar province. Likewise, at least 3 Canadian soldiers were killed and 2 others badly injured as a roadside bomb ripped into their foot patrol on the road extending to the Saghiran Ghundi in Punjwai district on Sunday morning. In another news, last night, a dozen of the Canadian soldiers were killed in Kala Shah area of the Maiwand district when the enemy's armored tank was hit by the land mine blast. Similarly, also Sunday, a logistical vehicle laden with the supplies of the Allied forces was struck by I.E.D's in the same area, destroying the tank completely, while no casualties were reported. Moreover, yesterday, one of the Canadian army tank was destroyed in a bomb attack in Sanziri in Zhari district. Reported by Qari Yusouf Ahmadi

Paktika, Oshaky, 18 January 2010

Wounded enemy soldiers, Kandahar airfield, 18 January 2010

Specially turned flags for coffins, Kandahar airfield, 18 January 2010

Destroyed car of puppet police, Ghazni, 18 January 2010

Also 18-01-2010: Attack on enemy convoy in Ghazni

According to news, attack took place at this morning (2010-01-18) on enemy supply convoy on Kabul-Kandahar road in Gilan, Ghazni. One truck was destroyed, there is no exact information while Reported by Qari Yusouf Ahmadi (Informal translation)

Car of puppet army, Helmand, 18 January 2010

French invader (marshal) killed 13 January in Afghanistan, 18 January 2010

British invader (Sapper) killed 31 December in Sangin, Helmand, 19 January 2010

American in invader (Sgt 1st Class) killed in Afghanistan, 19 January 2010

American invaders (Air Force Tech Sgt, killed 19 January in Kandahar, Army Capt)
20 January 2010

American invader (Marine Lance Cpl) killed 10 January in Helmand, 20 January 2010

10-01-2010

Invaders' tank blown up by IED attack in Helmand

One of the U.S. invaders military tank got destroyed late Saturday afternoon as a result of roadside bomb explosion happening in Helmand's district of Garmsir. As per details, the U.S. invaders military convoy was passing through Darwaishan area of this district as one of their tank was hit by Mujahideen's planted mine. Similarly, also the other day, one of the Nato invader's tank got struck by an IED blast in Kowshtah area of the same district. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

Helmand attacks and bombings cause enemy extensive losses and casualties

The enemy suffered on Sunday heavy losses and casualties in a series of attacks and bombings in Helmand's districts of Musa Kala and Nawa. In the morning hours of Jan. 10, five NATO soldiers were terribly wounded in an ambush attack carried out by the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate in Musa Kala's Toghi area. In another news, a vehicle of Afghan army got struck by another roadside bombing on Sunday which was smashed into pieces, killing 4 Afghan soldiers instantly in the same area. Also on Sunday, 2 Afghan soldiers were killed and 3 seriously wounded when one of their Corolla vehicle got hit by a hidden IED in Nawa's Surkh Dowz area. The wounded were, reportedly, shifted to a U.S hospital in the neighboring district, Garm Sir. Likewise, 5 Afghan soldiers were killed and 7 wounded later this day when their two vehicles were separately targeted by IED blasts in Nawa district. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

A heavy encounter erupted near the province's Lashkar Gah town when the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate attacked the British soldiers on Monday soon after the enemy came out of their base, in which the British soldiers suffered sever losses of life and injuries. In the mean time, a roadside bomb ripped into the British soldiers during the encounter, causing the enemy further fatalities, however, there is no details of the extent of their casualties. It is ,furthermore, worth mentioning that one of the British journalists, Robert Hammer, was killed the other day while he was traveling with the U.S soldiers in Nawa district of Helmand province.

Helmand, Nawa, invaders killed 9 January 2010

19-01-2010

Eleven Allied soldiers killed in Arghandab

Eleven foreign soldiers were killed as well as 4 wounded on Tuesday when their foot soldiers encountered a land mine planted by the Mujahideen while the enemy was passing through a street near the Kuhak Ghunday in the province's Arghandab district. The locals say the explosion was powerful enough to throw the mutilated and torn bodies of soldiers away over the area. Reported by Qari Yusouf Ahmadi

Mujahideen torch 8 vehicles near Kandahar city

The Mujahideen on Tuesday, waylaid a convoy of the logistical vehicles of the NATO forces on Kabul Dwa Rahi (intersection) in the west of Kandahar city, according to the report from Kandahar province. At least 6 logistical trucks and 2 two oil tankers full of petroleum were set ablaze as a result of being targeted by RPGs. Likewise, on Monday, some 7 soldiers of the Afghan minion army were killed when their vehicle was blown apart in a roadside bomb explosion in the Chinartu area of the Shah Wali Kowt district in Kandahar province, however, the pieces of the stuck vehicle have still existed up to this day on the Kandahar-Uruzgan highway. Reported by Qari Yusouf Ahmadi

20-01-2010

Enemy bleeds, 15 NATO-led Allied soldiers killed, several tanks eliminated in Kandahar

At least 15 Allied soldiers were killed on Wednesday when their three tanks were struck by the Mujahideen's planted mines on Kandahar-Herat highway in the Rahman Mandah area of Zhari district in Kandahar province. All three tanks were wrecked, taking the lives of fifteen foreign soldiers. Also Wednesday, following the above losses and casualties inflicted on the enemy, a forth tank of the NATO-led forces encountered a roadside bomb in the same area, causing all the Allied soldiers to lose their lives and leaving the tank destroyed. It is however, worth mentioning that prior to these bombings, 3 Canadian military tanks were destroyed in the roadside bombings in Boldak district of the province, killing at least 2 dozens of Canadian soldiers which bring the losses of the enemy tanks to seven throughout Jan. 20. Reported by Qari Yusouf Ahmadi

Kandahar city, 19 January 2010

19-01-2010

American base comes under attack in Kunar

On Tuesday morning, the U.S base located in Gantli area of the district Nari in Kunar province came under Mujahideen heavy and small arms fire. The Mujahideen officials say the U.S. base was hit by a dozens of mortar shells, causing the enemy heavy losses and fatalities. However, there are no further details of their casualties. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

21-01-2010

American base attacked in Kunar province

In Kunar's district of Nari, a U.S base came under missile strikes on Wednesday. According to the local Mujahideen, 6 mortar shells were fired at the base 2 of which struck within the facility, damaging the facility and causing the U.S soldiers serious loss of life and injuries. A soldiers of the Afghan army has reportedly been killed who had been posted as a guard outside the base. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Combat Outpost of American invaders under fire, Kunar, 21 January 2010

American invader (Army Staff Sgt) killed in Afghanistan, 22 January 2010

Combat Outpost of American invaders under fire, Paktika, 22 January 2010

Four policemen killed 25 January in Lashkar Gah, Helmand Helmand , 26 January 2010

26-01-2010

Commander surrenders in Lashkar Gah

A commander of the police forces turned himself in to the Mujahideen in Lashkar Gah, the capital of Helmand province on Tuesday. The officer who associated with the Mujahideen gave in a vehicle, 1 P-K machine gun, 4 Kalashnikov rifles to the Mujahideen, said the officials of Mujahideen. The officer surrender comes after four policemen were killed by police official in the center of the city a day earlier. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

25-01-2010

Bombs kill more than 10 Allied soldiers in Helmand, destroy a tank

In Helmand's district of Sangeen, a bomb planted yesterday near Khan Muhammad outpost killed 6 Britain and Americans and wounded some , besides damaging a the facility, forcing the enemy to flee from the area whose sensitive electronic equipments such as cameras, binoculars and some other important stuff were seized by the Mujahideen. Likewise, a NATO tank on Monday was hit by bomb strike in the province's Khansheen district, killing the foreign soldiers on board. Also Monday, in an encounter with the Mujahideen, some 4 British and American soldiers were killed and another 5 wounded in Babaji near Laskar Gah, capital of Helmand. However, no Mujhids have, by the virtue of Allah's bounty, been harmed during the battle Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

Eleven U.S. soldiers suffer loss of life an injuries in Helamad

Some 11 local and U.S soldiers were killed or injured in three separate detonations, two of which occurred in the later morning hours and the third in the later afternoon hours of Sunday, in Ghijaino, west of district Marjah in Helmand provinces. Also Sunday, the U.S. coalition fores encountered a deadly explosion in Trikh Naro area, east of this district causing the foreign soldiers further fatalities. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

24-01-2010

Two U.S and its allies tanks destroyed in Helmand

Some 5 U.S and British soldiers were killed when their 2 tanks were struck by two alternate landmine blasts in the province's Nad Ali district. In another incident, on Sunday, 4 solderers of the coalition forces sustained loss of life and injuries in a 3-hour long encounter with the Mujahideen breaking out in the same area. however, two Mujahids suffered injuries during the battle. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

CV9030 of Norwegian invaders after IED attack, 3 soldiers were killed and wounded, Ghurmach, Faryab, 25 January 2010

Also 16-01-2010

Mujahideen kill 3 invaders, destroy enemy's tank

In an encounter with the foreign coalition forces, the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate killed at least 3 foreign soldiers and wounded two others besides destroying their tanks in Faryab's Khwajah Namosi district on Friday. The Jihadic officials report from the region, the hour-long encounter came following an ambush attack carried out by the Mujahideen on the enemy. No Mujahids, by the grace of Allah's bounty, have been harmed during the combat Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

Ghurmach, Faryab, 25 January 2010

American invaders (Marine Lance Corporals) killed 23 and 24 January in Helmand
27 January 2010 (see page 36)

Canadian invaders hide in bunker during rocket attacks at Kandahar Airfield, 29 January 2010

31-01-2010

Kandahar airfield comes under attack yet again

Once again, the Kandahar airfield came under Mujahideen's missiles and rocket strikes which caused the enemy heavy losses and fatalities on Friday. It is to be said that it is the forth attack that has been carried out on the same airfield over the past week. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

29-01-2010

Mujahideen missiles hit Kandahar airfield

The Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate on Wednesday night conducted missile attacks on the Kandahar airfield where a large number of the Americans and Britain are stationed. Two of the missiles landed in the airfield causing the British and U.S. forces sizable losses. Similarly, the same airfield came under Mujahideen's attack about four days ago, as well. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

25-01-2010

Kandahar airfield comes under attack

On Sunday, the Kandahar airfield came under missile strikes by the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate amid a meeting held between the U.S officers and the Bulgarian Defense Minister Nikola Miladinov inside the airfield, in Kandahar province. According to the report from the province, Mujahideen fired missiles from a distance 200 meters, six of which struck the airfield causing the enemy sizable losses, but there are no details of whether the Bulgarian Minister was killed or injured. However, the other day, the Bulgarian military confirmed the death of their 6 soldiers. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

British invaders (Lance Cpl, Rifleman) killed 22 January in Helmand, 29 January 2010

22-01-2010

Helmand bombings destroy 3 tanks, kill a dozen of British soldiers

In Helmand's Gerishk district, three tanks of the British troops were eliminated by I.E.D's blasts on Thursday. According to the report from the Helmand province, the incident took place in Sayedanu village of this district while the British soldiers were on a combat mission against the Mujahideen when their 3 tank fell prey to the mines planted by the Mujahideen. As a result, the enemy's three tanks were destroyed killing the British soldiers inside. The report adds the explosions were followed by a direct firefight from the Mujahideen in which no Mujahids were harmed. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

American invaders (Sergeant and Lance Corporal) killed in Marja, Helmand, 29 January 2010

Site of crashed between puppet army and NATO, many puppets were killed, Wardak, 30 January 2010

American invader (Marine Sgt) killed in Afghanistan, 31 January 2010

Mujahideen in Afghanistan

January 2010

Ghazni, 23 January 2010

Also 23-01-2010

Polish patrol comes under ambush attack in Ghazni

On later Saturday the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate waylaid a Polish combat patrol in Ghazni's Maqur district. The report points out the ambush attack was carried out in Muhammad Shah area of this district in which one of the enemy's patrol tank was targeted by Mujahideen's RPGs, leaving the tank ablaze. According to the local Mujahideen of the area, the number of the polish soldiers' casualties are not determined Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Ghazni, 23 January 2010

PUPPET ARMY SUSTAINS LOSSES IN

URUZGAN

Some military operation of last day

17-12-2009

Martyrdom operation within the district facility; 50 sustain fatal casualties

Two of the Islamic Emirate Mujahideen, Hafiz Abdul Hai and Abdullah, carried out martyrdom operations Thursday afternoon within the facility of Harwat district in Uruzgan. Having entered the compound of the district facility following an armed attack on the soldiers on guards in front of the facility, both "Istishhadi" attackers carried out martyr attacks within the compound, entirely destroying the facility as well as killing at least 32 Afghan soldiers and 7 foreign advisers instantly with wounding another 14 including district commander, the report says. The martyrdom operation is said to have been carried out successively as a meeting was in progress between the members of the committee and foreign advisers. Furthermore, the adviser of the district committee and two of his assistants are reported to have been among the dead. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

22-12-2009

Commander's vehicle struck by IED attack in Tarinkoot

One of Mujahideen IEDs targeted a vehicle of Afghan army's regional commandant early Tuesday night. The bomb ripped into the vehicle at "Garmab" area of this district, destroying the vehicle and killing 3 soldiers inside with the commander badly injured who had been the main target. According to the eyewitnesses, the wrecked vehemency has been left burning at the explosion site. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

25-12-2009

Four soldiers killed in Tarin Koot blast

An Afghan police ranger vehicle pushed through one of the Mujahideen planted mine on Friday that went off blowing the vehicle apart and killing four soldiers including their commander in the province's Tarin Koot town. The struck vehicle has been on fire till later this afternoon, while the dead have been carried away from the explosion scene. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

28-12-2009

Tarin Kowt explosions cause invaders immense losses

In Uruzgan's Tarin Kowt town, a series bombings inflicted heavy casualties on the foreign invading forces on Monday. According to the details 5 NATO soldiers were killed early Monday noon when their tank was struck by an IED blast in Darwaishano's Qala-e-now area of Tatin Kowt town, while 3 NATO soldiers lost their lives in land mine explosion on Sunday. Also Sunday, an Afghan soldier was killed in a guerrilla attack outside the enemy base in "Bai Nawa area of this town. In a recent news, Mujahideen engaged in encounter with the invaders in Darwaishan's Qala-e-Now area of this town, causing the enemy fatal casualties, but the extent of their death and injury is not clear. The report adds that the area came under massive air strikes by the American forces that resulted in wounding 2 Mujahids. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

5 invaders killed in Tarin Kowt explosions

Five NATO soldiers were killed and 4 injured Monday evening when two alternate explosions went off as the enemy was heading for their base in "Muhammad Nazir" area of Tarin Kowt town. An officers of the invaders is said to have been among the dead Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

01-01-2010

Invaders tanks hunted by mine blasts in Chowrah district

Two of the NATO armored tanks were hit by land mine explosions on Dec. 31 and Jan. 01 at the "Zor Kotangi" area of the Chowrah district in Uruzgan. According to the details, a combat patrol tanks of the NATO forces was heavily damaged late Thursday afternoon in an IED blast and the NATO soldiers on board got killed who, shortly after the incident, were shifted to their base by the helicopter. The report adds that in the late morning hours of Friday, some of the NATO tanks were on the way to the blast site where one of their tank was exploded yesterday as their second tank was targeted by another IED blast which was badly damaged with its soldiers killed. According to the locals of the area, both tanks were left burning at the site of explosion Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

7-01-2010

Explosion kills four soldiers in Tirin Kot

At eleventh hour of the afternoon (2010-01-07) Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate blew up car of puppet police near city Tirin Kot, Uruzgan. Car was fully destroyed, (4) soldiers including the commander were killed. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf (Informal translation)

8-01-2010

5 soldiers die as bomb goes off in Tarin Kowt town

More than 5 soldiers were killed on Thursday evening when their ranger vehicle was hit by one of IED blast in Niazo village located in Tarin Kowt town of Uruzgan province. A commander has reportedly been among the dead Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

10-01-2010

3 Nato invading terrorists, 1 interpreter killed as their tank hits a bomb in Uruzgan

One of the Nato invaders tank got blown apart on Saturday noon as the their tank rolled over a planted land mine in Mari Abad area of Tarin Kowt, Uruzgan province. At least four Nato invading terrorists soldiers were killed including one of their interpreters in the bomb blast taking place in the early afternoon hours of Jan. 09. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

11-01-2010

Tarin Kowt explosion kills 5, injures 3

The Mujahdeen of the Islamic Emirate carried out a remote-controlled bomb attack on the base of the minion Afghan army on Sunday, killing five soldiers on the spot and seriously injuring another three. The remote-controlled bombing occurred in Uruzgan's Tarin Kowt town, in which a commander of the outpost is believed to be among the killed soldiers. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

12-01-2010

9 Allied soldiers killed in martyrdom operation in Hirwat district

As many as nine allied soldiers were killed and 4 wounded in a martyrdom operation carried out on Monday by a brave Mujahid, Muhammad Wali, in the Harwat district in Uruzgan. According to the details, the martyr attack came as several enemy had gathered for a meeting inside the district Qummandani. The brave Mujahid, Muhammad Wali, after having opened firing on the guards in front of the Qummandani, entered the facility and carried out the operation. In fact, 30 foreign and local troops including some members of the council were killed in a martyr attack on Dec. 17, 2009 in the same district. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

20-01-2010

Tarin Kot bombing kill 4 soldiers

In the province's Tarin Kot town, four soldiers including a commander were killed and two injured in the roadside bombing on Tuesday. The bombing took place in the Jibz area of the provincial capital. However, the enemy who was trying to evacuate the dead from the site was attacked by the Mujahideen inflicting further casualties on the enemy. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

22-01-2010

7 soldiers lose their lives in Uruzgan

About seven soldiers of the Afghan army were killed on Friday when their military vehicle encountered a land mine in the province's Tarin Kowt town. The locals of the region say the vehicle got blown apart into pieces in the bombing, throwing the mutilated and torn pieces of their bodies around the vicinity in Bai Nawa area of this district Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

23-01-2010

17 invaders and their puppets killed and wounded by different blasts in Uruzgan

At this morning (2010-01-23), (3) soldiers of puppet army including officer were killed and (2) were injured, when Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate detonated explosive device on way of enemy foot patrol of the enemy in Ghaznigak near Tirin Kot, Uruzgan. At eight o'clock this morning other blast killed 3 and wounded 2 invaders in Charcheno, when enemy tried to move roadside bomb. At third hour of afternoon (7) invaders were killed by blast, when they tried to neutralise explosive device near Tirin Kot city Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf (Informal translation)

28-01-2010

4 killed as Dutch tank hit by bomb attack in Uruzgan

Some four Dutch soldiers were killed including a local translator late Thursday afternoon when their patrol tank got blown up in the landmine blast in the Uruzgan's Char Chino district. The enemy was on a combat patrol mission in the Gorgeen area located in this district and was preparing to launch operation against the Mujahideen as a roadside bomb set off near one of their tanks damaging the tank and killing and wounding the soldiers inside, said the Mujahideen officials and witnesses. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

Remote-controlled bomb kill 5 Australian troops in Uruzgan

About five Australian soldiers were killed by the Mujahideen remote-controlled bomb attack while they were on foot patrol on Wednesday in the Province's Tarin Kowt district. The remote-controlled bomb was carried out in Sinano area of this district, in which an Australian officer is said to be among the dead. Reported by Qari Muhammad Yousuf

30-01-2010

Blasts in Uruzgan kill 4 Dutch, 8 Afghan soldiers

On earlier Saturday, at least four Dutch soldiers were killed in Uruzgan when their tank got blown up by a landmine blast in Chawni area of Darwishano near Tarin Kowt city. A little over an hour later, a military vehicle of Afghan army was struck by another blast in the same area, leaving 5 Afghan soldiers dead. Similarly, on Friday, 3 Afghan soldiers were killed in Gorgeen area of Char Chino district in this province while demining a planted mine in the area

Uruzgan, 14 January 2010

3 puppet policemen and 8 soldiers killed by two explosion in Uruzgan

8 puppet soldiers killed 7 January in Uruzgan, 8 January 2010

8 puppet soldiers killed 7 January in Uruzgan, 8 January 2010

Attack on Kabul

Full report of yesterday's operations, 18-01-2010

A martyr group of the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate on Monday at 9:45 am carried out a series of small and heavy arm attacks, martyrdom operations and guerrilla attacks on the Presidential Palace and surrounding key government buildings including Ministry of mines and energy, Ministries of justice, finance and judiciary, Afghanistan Bank and Sarena Hotel in the heavily secured Kabul city at the heart of the country.

The battle broke out by carrying out a martyrdom operation by Humayun opposite Pashtunistan square, a traffic circle, killing and wounding tens of the security guards in front of the Presidential Palace followed by a group attack consisting of 5 Mujahideen headed by Mula Muhammad carried out on a building related to the Ministry of communication adjacent to Sarena Hotel, where the Mujahideen gained the control of the building after killing the guards and from where the team of five started targeting the Ministries of mines, justice finance and other departments and buildings including Afghanistan Bank and Sarena Hotel.

Meanwhile, a group of 4 Mujahideen headed by Mula Musa positioned themselves near the Cinema Aryana from where they began firing at the stated ministries and buildings.

After the first two groups, a third group headed by Mula Saifullah positioned themselves and started targeting the certain Ministries and buildings.

Thirty minutes later, a brave Mujahid, Haiji Masood carried out a car bomb attack by slamming his explosive-filled ambulance into base of the forces in Malik Azghar roundabout who were about to come to the war zone, killing a number of high ranking officers and personal. Then another attack was carried out on the Cinema Pameer road on the security convoy of military vehicles that en route to the battle ground.

At last, more than 31 soldiers of the Afghan puppet army and National police were killed in the surrounding areas of Presidential Palace and 22 soldiers sustained loss of life and injuries in the car bomb attack carried out in Malik Azghar traffic circle and a dozen of government-related vehicles parked near about were damaged during the operations.

It is, however, worth mentioning a number of the markets shopping centers damaged and the Qari Aman shopping center was set ablaze in the blind firing from the enemy soldiers who were in terror and shock during the operations.

Among 20 brave Mujahideen, 7 brave and heroic figures including Hafiz Humayun, Mula Muhammad, Mula Musa, Hafiz Ali, Saifullah and Nijat gave their lives for Allah Almighty and embraced martyrdom in today's operations. The rest of 13 brave Mujahideen, by the virtue of Allah's bounty and His mercy returned unhurt and are waiting to be assigned other missions. However, according to some of the statesmen, strategists and others, today's operations have been regarded the most successful, strategic, timely and important ones.

The Ministry of Defense has, too, confirmed the death of the its 27 soldiers. Not to be left unsaid that the enemy has always concealed the actual casualty figures and reduced the loss of life, that is, they have confirmed far too fewer than the real death toll or the denied any casualties.

Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Area of Pashtunistan square and Presidential Palace

- 10 - Ministry of Defence
- 14 - Ministry of finance
- 20 - Ministry of Information
- 22 - Ministry of justice
- 25 - Ministry of Mines and Industries
- 26 - Presidential Palace

Serena Hotel burn after attack, Kabul 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

American Special Force in uniform of puppet army with signs "Afghan commandos",
Kabul, 18 January 2010

American Special Force in uniform of puppet army with signs "Afghan commandos",
Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

Kabul, 18 January 2010

19-01-2010

8 soldiers die, 6 logistical vehicles set ablaze near Kabul city

The Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate ambushed an Allied forces' convoy of logistical vehicles near the country's capital Kabul city on Tuesday. At least 5 logistical petroleum trucks were burned down during the surprise attack carried out in a related area of Wrishmeen Tangi. The Jihadic officials report from the region that one of the security guards' escort vehicles was hit by R.P.Gs in the attack, killing eight escort security soldiers inside the vehicle on Kabul-Jalalabad road which was blocked off shortly after the attack and all the traffic movement was halted by the enemy. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Kabul, 19 January 2010

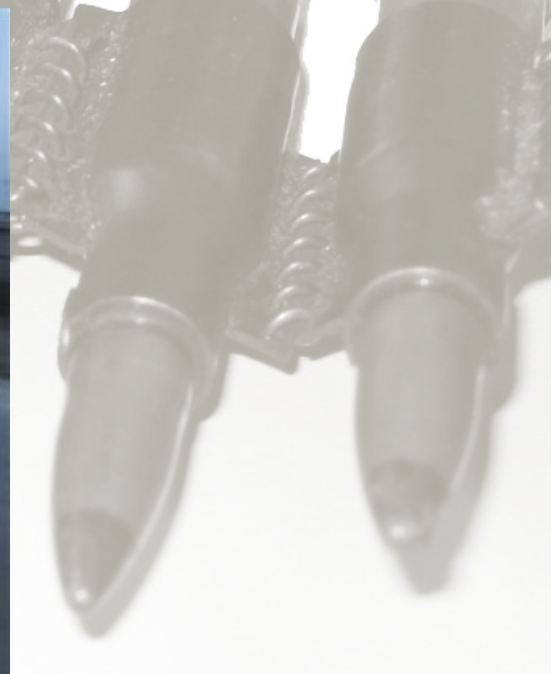

Attack on Kabul

26-01-2010

Martyr bomb attack near U.S. base in Kabul kills 25 American troops

A martyr car bomb attack near Kabul city killed 25 U.S. soldiers besides destroying their three tanks on Tuesday. According to the details, the martyrdom operation was carried out by a brave Mujahid, Shams-ur-Rahman near the U.S. base on the road leading to Poli Charki. The brave Mujahid slammed his vehicle packed with 600 kilo explosives into the military convoy of the U.S. tanks which went off outside the gate of the U.S. base, Camp Phoenix. The Martyrdom operation comes as the U.S. troops informed the Mujahideen of their fresh operation against the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

Kabul, 26 January 2010

Kabul, 26 January 2010

US soldier frisks Afghan policeman, Kabul, 26 January 2010

Kabul, 26 January 2010

Kabul, 26 January 2010

Kabul, 26 January 2010

Kabul, 26 January 2010

Kabul, 26 January 2010

ATTACK ON LASHKAR GAH

Helmand, Lashkar Gah city 29 January 2010

29-01-2010

Rocket attack on Lashkar Ghah city

At eleven o'clock in the morning (2010-01-29) Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate started rocket attack on Lashkar Ghah city, before direct attack. At least five rockets target government buildings, which has led to fire in these buildings. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi (Informal translation)

Deadliest battle going in Lashakar Gah

At least 26 Afghan soldiers have been killed and a dozen wounded during the operation launched by a group of seven martyr attackers of the Mujahideen in the late morning hours of Jan. 29 which is still in progress, according to a recent report from the area. On the other hand, the enemy issued a statement, claiming that they have recaptured the points from the Mujahideen is not true, in fact, the Hotel and other points are in the control of the seven brave Mujahideen who are still, in the evening hours, fighting the enemy there. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

Helmand, Lashkar Gah city 29 January 2010

Helmand, Lashkar Gah city, 29 January 2010

Helmand, Lashkar Gah city, 29 January 2010

Full report of Friday's operation in Laskar Gah

At least 45 Afghan and foreign soldiers and government servicemen were killed as a group of the seven Mujahideen armed with heavy and small arms, some in explosive vests struck the provincial capital, Lashkar Gah on Friday. The Mujahideen first took over the Bust Hotel which is frequented by the foreign and Afghan official guests and targeted 5 vehicles packed with foreign and Afghan soldiers in front of the hotel. Following attack on the hotel a group of three took over Haji Azizullah Plaza located in the central part of the city, while the other four positioned themselves tactically in strategic points who have carried out a series of attacks on the provincial head quarter, the enemy's main base in Lashkar Gah, border Kandak (Battalion), UNAMA branch and other government buildings. Amid

Mujahideen's operations the forces seemed unable to gain control of the situations and stop the Mujahideen whose strong resistance continued till the evening hours of Friday. Three Mujahideen, Mula Naseem, Mula Muhammad Wali, and and Hafeez embraced martyrdom, while the four surviving members of the group returned unharmed. Reported by Imran Khalil

Helmand, Lashkar Gah city, 29 January 2010

Other military operations 29-01-2010 in Helmand

Bomb in Helmand kills and injures 12 Americans

More than twelve soldiers of the U.S and Afghan forces suffered loss of life and injuries in the bombing in Helmand's Kanshin district on early Friday evening. The report says the forces were preparing to launch attacks against Mujahideen in Taghaz area of Khanshin district when they encountered landmine planted by the Mujahideen. Two U.S. demining workers are said to be among the dead. The stated enemy's fatalities and casualties come as the seven Mujahideen who began their operations in the provincial capital, Laskar Gah, are still battling against the enemy there. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

British soldier's head and legs found in Musa Kala

On Friday, Mujahdeen, in Helmand's Musa Kala district, found a British soldier's head and legs cut off in the landmine blast that hit a British tank on Jan. 27, 2010 in the Ahmad Khanzo area of this district. In another news, also today, a military tank of the British troop was struck by landmine in Yateemchi area of this district that destroyed the tank and killed the soldiers who were traveling in the struck tank which was followed by an attack from the Mujahdeen on those who were trying to evacuate the casualties from the explosion scene causing additional losses to the enemy British. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

Mujahideen target tank, kill 3 U.S soldiers in Helmand

At least three American soldiers were killed in Helmand's Khanshin district early Friday afternoon as Mujahideen struck one of the U.S. tanks through missile which was set off fire. The incident comes as a group of seven brave Mujahideen was engaged in a deadly battle against the enemy in Lashkar Gah, the capital of this province. Reported by Qari Yusuf Ahmadi

DUTCH HELL IN HELMAND -2009

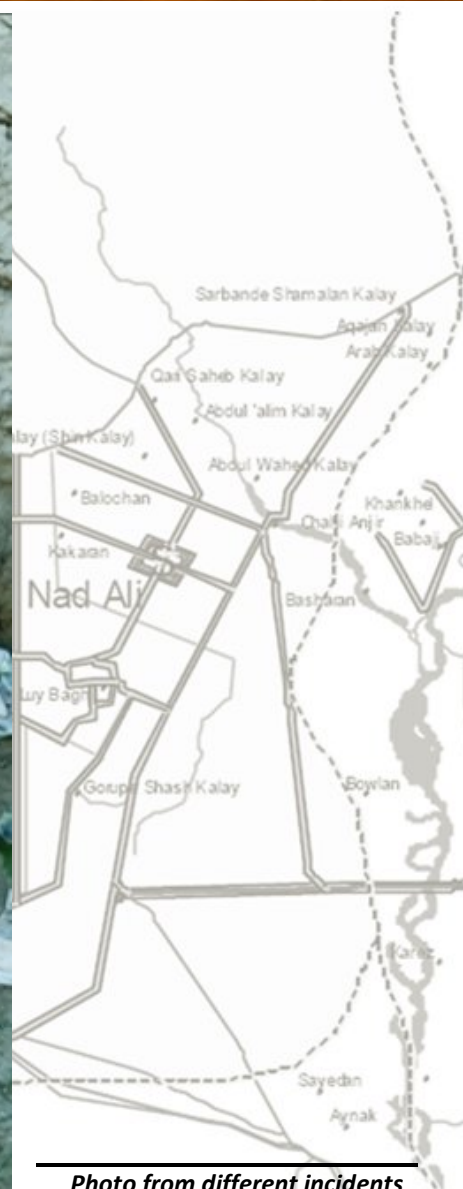

Photo from different incidents

13-01-2010

Military helicopter of invaders shot down in Helmand

Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate shot down helicopter of NATO in Musa Qala district, Helmand, at a distance of ten kilometers north of center of district. According report, the enemy helicopter was shot down and caught fire in air at about ten o'clock morning of the day before yesterday (2010-01-11). The helicopter crashed and burned completely, and (35) soldiers were on board. Residents of area say that the wreckage helicopter and parts still remain on place of crash, and dead soldiers were transported by trucks to their base. Reported by Qari Yousuf Ahmadi

18-01-2010

American spy plane shot down in Wardak

The Mujahideen on Saturday shot down an American UAV, pilotless spy plane in Soor Pitawi area near the provincial capital Sayedabad town. Presidents said the spy plane had been flying low over the village for the past few days when it was hit by Mujahideen's fire causing the UAV to fall down and get smashed into piece, whose wreckage lay scattered over the area till late Saturday evening. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

23-01-2010

American helicopter shot down near Kabul

Earlier on Saturday, a U.S Chinook helicopter went down in a related area of Kowi Safi, in the south of the Kabul city. According to the details, the U.S helicopter after shooting by the Mujahideen was left ablaze immediately which fell down in a few moments, killing its crew aboard. The site of the crash was surrounded right after the falling down by the enemy in order to evacuate the casualties and the sensitive electronic equipments Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Damaged Chinook
transported by a NATO-led
Russian Mi-26, Kandahar, 14
October 2009

Damaged Chinook transported by a NATO-led Russian Mi-26, Kandahar, 14 October 2009

Damaged Chinook transported by a NATO-led Russian Mi-26, Kandahar, 14 October 2009

Repair of the English military helicopter, Helmand 2009

Chinook after fire of RPG-7, 2009

Chinook after fire of RPG-7, 2009

Damaged Chinook transported by a NATO-led Russian Mi-26

Damaged Military helicopter Mi-24 of puppet army

British Apache AH1, Helmand, 4 September 2008

MILITARY OPERATIONS IN KHOST

2-12-2009

Khost mine blast blows a police vehicle apart.

A police ranger vehicle got blown off in an explosion that took place Tuesday December 01 near the capital of the province's Babuk district, according to the report. The regional Mujahideen add that the vehicle was blown apart in the blast which got smashed into pieces, killing 5 security policemen. An intelligence officer is reported to have been among the dead. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

3-12-2009

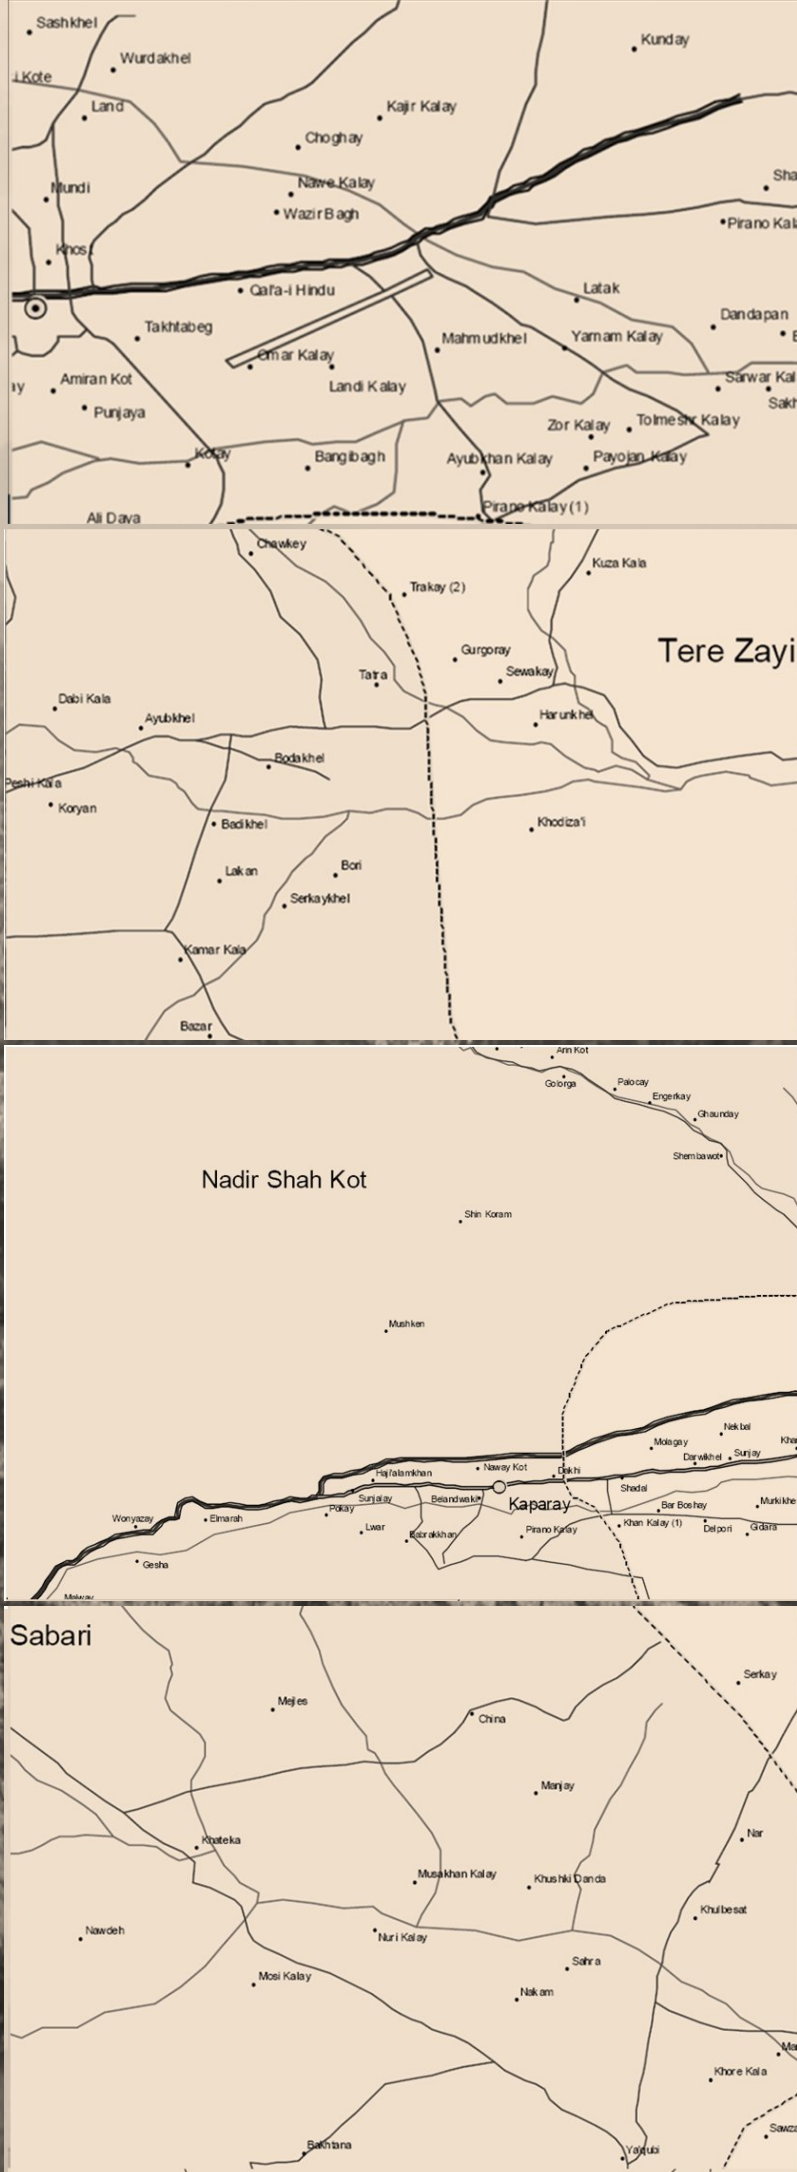

Puppet army vehicle destroyed and American base attacked in Khost

Thursday afternoon 03-12-2009 at around 11 am local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan with an IED destroyed a vehicle of the puppet army in Lakno area Khost city, killing two terrorists and wounded three. According to another report, Tuesday afternoon 01-12-09, the Mujahideen with heavy weapons attacked American invaders base in Khabasat area Yaqoobi district Khost province, seven cannon shells landed inside the enemy base, causing physical and material losses in the ranks of the enemy. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

5-12-2009

U.S. tank pushes through IED in Sabrio

A U.S. military tank hit one of the Mujahideen IEDs Friday evening December 04 at Showni Kandaw-related area of Yaqoobi district in Khost province. According to the sources, the U.S. military convoy was en route to the center of this district as one of their tanks was targeted by a land mine. The tank was burned down, killing the U.S. soldiers aboard whose death toll reaches 5. One of the enemy's interpreter are said to be among the dead. In another news, in the early afternoon hours of December 04 an enemy ranger truck was destroyed by Mujahideen during an armed attack, killing 5 Afghan soldiers on board. As per another report, an enemy tank was targeted in an IED blast, killing the foreign soldiers inside. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

9-12-2009

5 American invading terrorists killed in Khost province
Wednesday morning 09-12-2009 at around 8 am local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan with an IED destroyed a patrolling tank of the American invaders in Khost province, the blast also killed five terrorists Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

12-12-2009

Two Military Vehicles Destroyed in Khust
Mujhideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan in Khust province destroyed two military tanks of the invading foreign forces and the hiring army of the Kabul puppet regime , in area located between Nadershah Kut and Ali Sher districts. The report adds, the crew aboard the tanks has been killed and the tanks burnt down after having been hit by rocket propelled grenades. Seven soldiers aboard ranger vehicle were also killed after hitting a land mine. A police officer who was the target of the explosion, has been severely injured in the incident. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

The destruction of 2 armored vehicles of the enemy in Khost
Sunday afternoon 13-12-2009 at around 3 pm local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan with IED's in two operations destroyed one invaders tank and one puppet army Ranger vehicle in Khost province. According to report, the puppet army Ranger vehicle was destroyed when it was patrolling, resulting in the death of all inside. The Nato invaders tank was blow up when the enemy convoy was passing through the area, four terrorists were also killed in the blast. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

16-12-2009

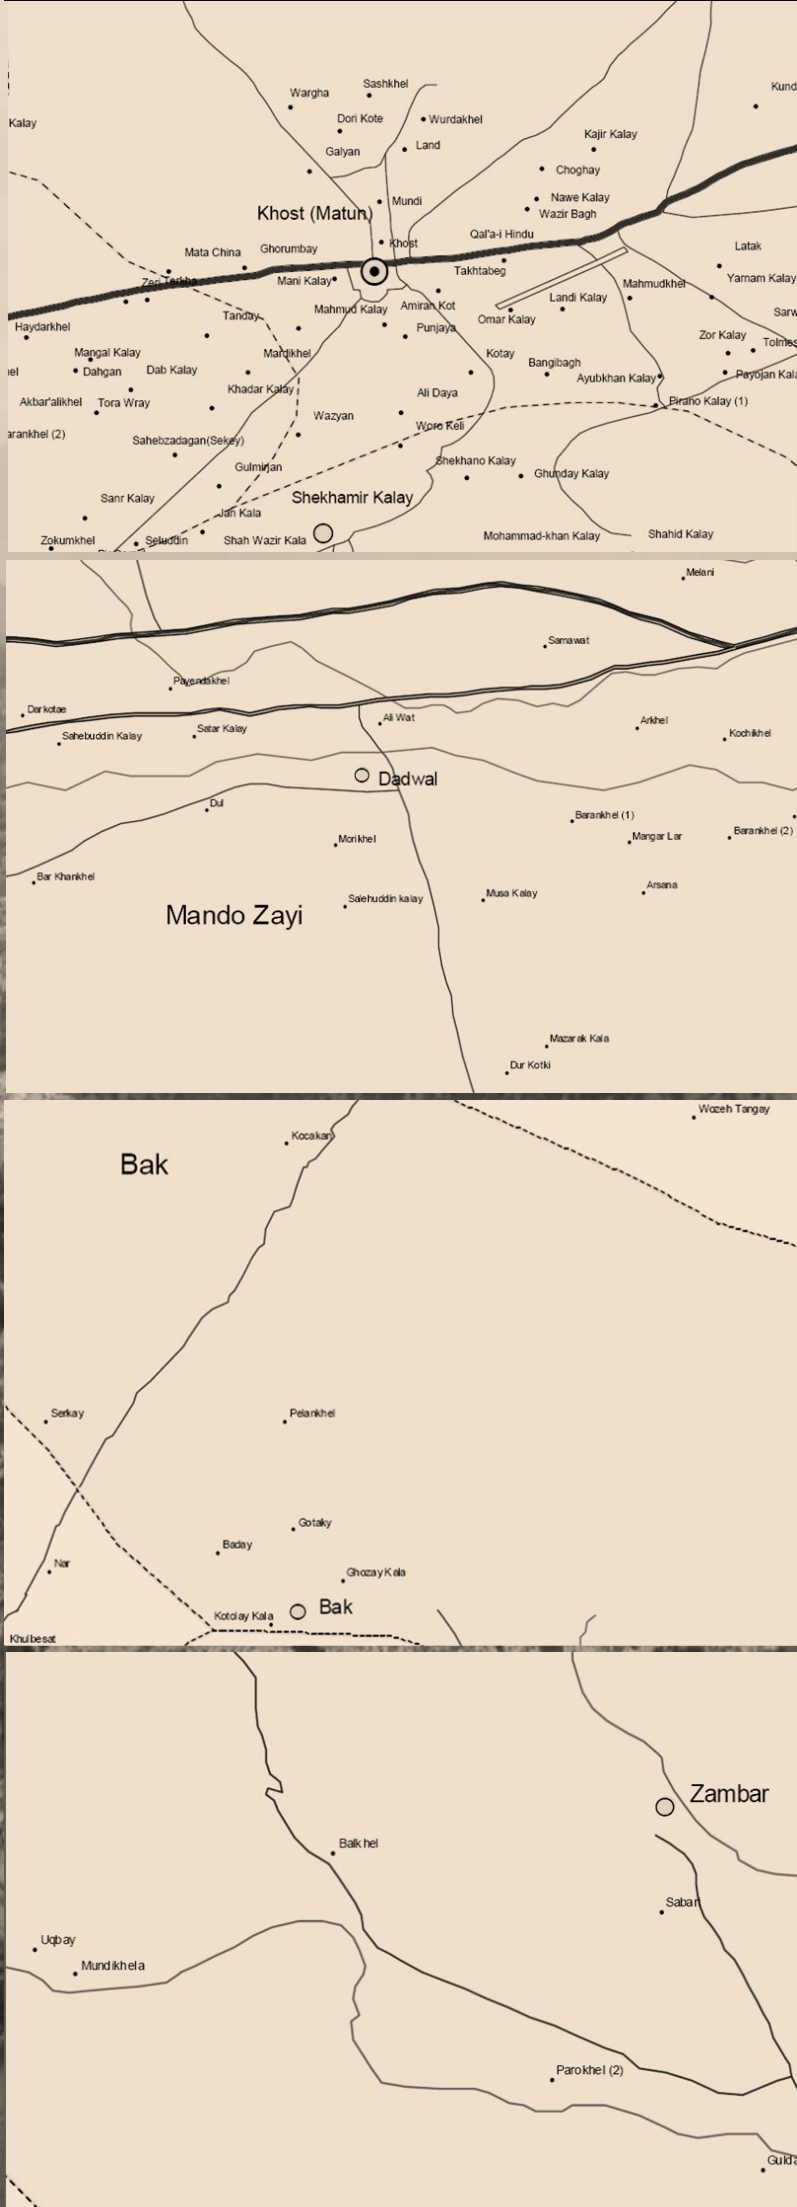

Ranger vehicle destroyed killing 5 puppet terrorists in Khost
Wednesday afternoon 16-12-2009 at around 5 pm local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan with an IED destroyed a Ranger vehicle of the puppet police in Nadir Shah Kot district of Khost province, five terrorists were also killed. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

17-12-2009

Martyr operation ; 35 U.S. soldiers sustain casualties in Khost
Thirty five American soldiers experienced casualties in the martyr attack Wednesday night at "Latko" a regional area of Yaqobio district of Khost. The U.S soldiers were in the point of entering a deserted compound when they were targeted by a martyr attacker, Rahmatullah, resident of the center of this province, who detonated his vehicle, killing at least fifteen U.S.soldiers and wounding more than twenty, according to the details. The Mujahideen from the area say that the compound has recently been frequented by Mujaideen in order to lure the enemy into raiding the it. The eyewitness say that the explosion was so powerful that it collapsed the compound to the ground, and there were so many dead and injured that the helicopter was called five times to carry the bodies away from the scene, while the site of the explosion had been surrounded till the morning of December 17. It is not to be left unsaid that it was the first operation of it is kind that had inflicted so extensive casualties on the enemy so far. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Six more foreigners lose their lives in Khost

Six foreign coalition soldiers were killed Thursday mid-morning.
The report says one of the enemy's vehicle got blown up in a roadside bomb on a road extending to Khalbisat area of Yaqobio district. According to the locals of the area, the vehicle was ablaze and the fire has still been shooting up from the vehicle. It is worth saying that 35 U.S. soldiers had sustained deadly casualties prior to this incident in the same area last night. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

18-12-2009

Bomb targets U.S. tank in Khost

One of the Mujahideen IEDs ripped into a U.S. tank in "Latko" area near the center of the Khost province late Thursday afternoon that completely destroyed the U.S. tank, killing 8 American soldiers inside the car. The U.S. soldiers were patrolling in the village of "Badinkhylo" as their tank was struck by a land mine, says the report, adding that a military ranger vehicle of the enemy had been targeted by another land mine Wednesday in "Sarafano Chawk" near the center of this province that left 2 contractors of the U.S. troops badly injured. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

4 enemy invaders killed in Nadirshah Koot

Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate waylaid a joint Afghan-coalition patrol Friday evening in "Zinkhelo" area of the province's Nadirshah Koot district, according to the report. The report adds that enemy's joint patrol was passing through this area as it was confronted with an ambush from Mujahideen followed by a face to face-to-face engagement that ended up shooting 5 Afghan soldiers dead. A tank of the coalition invaders was struck by RPGs with four invading soldiers killed on board. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

20-12-2009

Attack on invaders' campaign in Yaqoobio district

A NATO military campaign, where scores of the U.S. soldiers are stationed, came under an armed attack by Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate Sunday noon at "Khalbisat" area of the province's Yaqoobio district. Twelve 82 mm mortar shells hit within the facility of the military campaign, causing the enemy huge losses and casualties, according to the report. In another news, a NATO tank, heading for the their base, got blown off hitting a land mine at "Ayub Khylo" area of the the province's center, as a result of which the tank was destroyed with its crew killed. Likewise, a vehicle of the Road making company struck one of the IEDs, destroying the vehicle and killing all the people inside. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

21-12-2009

Invaders' 3 logistic vehicles burned down in Khost

A series of remote-controlled bomb attacks targeted three logistics deportation vehicles of the foreign invaders in the province's center, on a slope Monday afternoon. According to the report, the vehicles were fully burned down in the explosions with a few damaged, while the casualty number is unclear. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

22-12-2009

Khost explosion take lives of 5 soldiers

Five soldiers of Afghan puppet army were killed in an explosion taking place in Yaqoobio district of Khost on Tuesday afternoon. The Afghan soldiers were conducting a foot patrol in "Noori" area of this district as they were targeted by a heavy IED attack, according to the report. Five soldiers were killed and two, badly, injured. including a commander of the security outpost. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Another explosion in Khost leaves 7 American soldiers dead

Two massive IED attacks ripped into U.S. military patrol Tuesday evening at "Lakano" area near the center of the province. Both detonations ripped into the U.S. combat patrol tank at the village of Stanikzo, killing 7 American soldiers on the spot, the report said. According to the locals of the area, the explosions were so powerful that smashed the tank into pieces throwing the mutilated pieces of the organs and limbs of the U.S. soldiers 50 away across the fields. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

25-12-2009

Khust blast inflicts deadly casualties on the foreign invaders

The NATO terrorist forces experienced casualties late Friday afternoon in land mine blast near "Sara Bagh" airbase of Khost province, according to the details, the NATO soldiers were trying to neutralize land mines planted by the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate as one of the hidden IEDs exploded to the enemy at a distance of 100 kilometer from the airbase, inflicting deadly casualties on the NATO enemy forces whose precise number is not determined. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

IED attacks damage U.S. invaders 2 tanks in Khost

Two U.S. combat patrol tanks were targeted by IED blasts late Friday afternoon near the province's center in "Lakano" area as the U.S. patrol convoy was passing through "Kandow" area. The IEDs ripped alternately into their two tanks, killing the U.S.terrorist soldiers who were carried away from the scene an hour later. However there are no details of the extent of their casualties Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

28-12-2009

2 enemy vehicles eliminated in Khost detonations

In Khost 's Ali Sher district, two military ranger vehicles of the enemy got blown off in IED attacks on Monday. According to the details, following the first vehicle being stuck by a land mine which was being towed away by the latter as the second IED ripped into both vehicles that ended in destroying the vehicles and killing 3 soldiers. The dead were shifted to their base while the wreckage of the struck vehicles was scatted at the explosion site which is still there, according to the locals of the area. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

IED blast takes lives of 2 interpreters

Two interpreters for the U.S., Qais and Wais, were killed in an IED blast early Monday noon in the province's center. According to the details, the interpreters ,both brothers, were heading for one of the nearby U.S. base as their vehicle was blown apart in a land mine near the civil hospital. The vehicle was fully destroyed that has still been burning at the explosion site Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

29-12-2009

Twenty American CIA staff killed in martyrdom operation

Twenty CIA employees were killed as well as twenty five injured in early Tuesday evening within the area of " Zarah Hawi Dagar" (old airfield) near the center of Khost province, according to the news from Khost. The martyr attack was carried out when the CIA agents got together in a U.S. club-cum-training center for a meeting in order to collect information on the Mujahideen. According to one of the club's guards, the CIA employees, dressed in Afghan uniform* were in the the club discussing as an army officer entered the club and set off his explosive-packed vest, killing and injuring all inside the club.. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid *

FORWARD OPERATING BASE CHAPMAN

Interrogation building located northwest of the airstrip

Khost

30-12-2009

The destruction of 3 military vehicles of the invaders in Khost Wednesday afternoon 30-12-2009 at around 1 pm local time, Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan blew up an armored vehicle of the Nato invader in Khost province, the enemy vehicle was blown up as their were searching homes of innocent civilians, the blast destroyed the vehicle and killed all the terrorists in it. According to another report from Khost, Wednesday afternoon 30-12-2009 at around 1 pm local time, Mujahideen with an IED destroyed another armored vehicle of the Nato invaders, killing all on board. According to another report Khost, Wednesday morning 30-12-2009 at around 6 am local time, Mujahideen with an IED blew up an armored vehicle of the American invading terrorists, killing all the terrorists in it. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

31-12-2009

Security chief of Gardiz killed in bomb attack

Security chief of Gardiz, Bismillah Jan, was killed in an explosion on Thursday. The commander along with his 3 bodyguards soldiers were killed while he was getting into his vehicle near the center of Khost as a detonation went off, according to the Jihadic officials of the area. however, the trackage of the struck vehicle is still lying at the site of the blast. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

1-01-2010

Khost detonation cause the enemy sizable losses

In Khost's Dowmando district, one of the Afghan army ranger vehicle hit a planted land mine while it was moving to the Khost town, the report says, adding that at the same time another vehicle of the Afghan soldiers was struck by IED attack near the same area on Friday. Ten Afghan soldiers, travelling in both vehicles, were killed in in the explosions. In another news, a NATO tank was blown up an IED blast late Friday morning at "Madrasah" area of Mandowzo district, in this province. The tank got ablaze and 6 NATO soldiers inside the tank were killed in the detonation. Also Friday morning, a U.S tank was exploded in another IED blast at the "Shani Kadow" area of the Yaqoobio district. It is ,however, worth remembering that 20 CIA personnel were killed in a martyrdom operation near the center of the same province, where as the foreign invaders confirmed the death 8 CIA agents. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

3-01-2010

Khost blasts cause enemy heavy fatalities

In Khost's districts of Yaqoobio and Gardiz, the enemy sustained considerable casualties on Saturday and Sunday. According to the details, a Surf vehicle of Road making security soldiers got blown up late Saturday afternoon in a roadside bomb explosion at the "Qadeem" area of "Lakano" in the Gardiz town, killing 5 soldiers on the spot. In another news, in the morning hours of Jan. 03, a mine blast caused 5 Road making security soldiers deadly loss of life and injuries at the 'Shoni Kadow' area of the Yaqoobio district. Similarly, 2 soldiers were killed on Saturday when their motorcycle was hit by explosive devices on road extending to the " Ghulam Khan" area of Gardiz town.

6-01-2010

Mandozo explosion, 4 killed, 5 wounded

An IED blast inflicted severe loss of life in injuries on Afghan soldiers on Wednesday as their patrol encountered a roadside bomb in Mandozo District, Khost province. According to the report, the enemy ranger vehicle was hit by a land mine while the soldiers were patrolling at "Dowa Sarakah" area of this district, killing 4 Afghan soldiers and injuring another 5 who were taken away from the area, while the wreckage of the struck vehicle has still been burning at the explosion site. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Khost detonations cause U.S. forces fatal casualties

At least 7 American soldiers were killed late Wednesday morning in Lakano area of the Khost city as their tank got hit by an IED blast following a raid carried out by them on a civilian house. According to the details, the tank was terribly damaged killing the U.S. soldiers on board whose corpses were later taken away from the explosion scene by the helicopter, however, the U.S. invaders held 3 innocent civilians captive. In the mean time, a ranger vehicle of the Afghan National Militia struck a planted roadside bomb late Tuesday morning in Qadeem village of this area, ending up killing 9 militia soldiers including their commander. According to the villagers, the mutilated parts the bodies of the dead lay scattered over the area in the fields
Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

7-01-2010

Bombing carried out in governor's office in Khost

At least scores of top-level personnel including governor, Tahir Sabiri, sustained loss of life and injuries in the bombing carried out by Mujahideen late Thursday morning in the governor's office in Khost province. However, the details of the extent of their casualties is to be provided later. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

11-01-2010

Bombings take lives of 3 policemen in KHOST

In Khost's Yaqoobi district, more than three Afghan National Militia soldiers were killed in separate Mujahideen's bombings on Sunday. The explosions took place in Shoni Kandaw-related areas of this district, in which 3 soldiers were killed including one of their commanders and a dozen injured. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Security soldiers encounter land mine

In the province's Yaqoobi district, three road making security soldiers were killed and 2 injured Monday morning when they hit a roadside bomb while walking at the site. According to the Mujahideen of the area, a second bomb ripped into the soldiers who were trying to recover the dead from the explosion site, as a result, the enemy sustained further casualties while there is no report to determine the exact number of their casualties. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

15-01-2010

Attack on base of American invaders in Khulpesat

Yesterday (2010-01-14) Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate attack by mortars and missiles on base of American invaders in Khulpesat, Khost. According to local mujahideen, 20 bombs landed at base and inflicted losses to the enemy but was not accurate information about enemy casualties. After the attack, enemy bombed areas, farms and homes of innocent people were damaged, but did not casualties among mujahideen. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid (Informal translation)

Enemy suffered heavy losses in Khost

Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate detonated several explosions (2010-01-14) in Sabari district. At eleven o'clock this afternoon Mujahideen blew up puppet soldiers in Mundikhela city and (6) puppets were killed, (3) were wounded. According another report, Mujahideen blew up tank of invaders in [Nur Khel]. Explosion destroyed the tank completely, killing all on board. According to another report, Mujahideen killed three soldiers near their base by an improvised explosive device. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid (Informal translation)

16-01-2010

Khost blast kills 4 soldiers

At least four road making security soldiers were killed and a dozen wounded in the bombing in center of the Khost province on Saturday. The bomb went off while the foot soldiers were looking for the planted land mines in the area. Reportedly, a commander of an outpost has been among the dead Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Bomb attack injures district governor in Bak district

On Saturday, the district governor of the Bak district was wounded when his vehicle struck a planted land mine in the "Warghah" area of the district Bak in Khost province. The vehicle was completely destroyed, killing two gunmen of the governor in addition to wounding the governor himself who had been the primary target of the bombing. The explosion site was blocked off by the district servicemen, said the residents of the region. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

17-01-2010

Khost bombing kills three soldiers

On Saturday morning, at least 3 soldiers including a driver were killed when their truck hit a roadside bomb in Khost city. According to the report, the bombing took place in Dairah area in the provincial capital of Khost province. Likewise, yesterday morning, 4 road making soldiers were killed during a surprise attack in the Khuni Khwar area of this province. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Two police vehicle eliminated in Khost

There are reports from the Khost province that one of the police vehicle was blown off on Sunday noon, killing the soldiers including an officer when the vehicle struck a roadside bomb near the center of Shaikh Omair district in Khost province. Likewise, on Sunday, a dozen of Afghan soldiers were killed when their vehicle hit a planed land mine in Mardi Khel area of this district. According to the Jihadic officials, both vehicle were destrtoyed killing the soldiers inside the vehicles. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

19-01-2010

Explosion kills five puppet soldiers in Khost

At this afternoon (2010-01-19) car of puppet army destroyed by an explosive device in Lakano area near center of Khost province, when enemy guarded convoy and (5) soldiers were killed. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid (Informal translation)

At least 10 die as bomb sets off near Khost city

Some 10 soldiers of the combat unit of Afghan army were killed in a bomb explosion near the provincial capital of Khost on Tuesday. According to the report, the incident occurred while the enemy was on a combat mission against the Mujahideen in Dairah area near the Khost city, in which one of their officers is said to have been also killed in the bombing. Shortly after the explosion the enemy forces, as usual, captured a couple of innocent civilians on the accusation of the bomb attack. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

20-01-2010

Roadside bomb blast takes life of NATO soldier in Khost

One of the NATO soldiers lost his life while he was traveling in a tank with mine clearing roller system being blown up by explosive devices in Khust's Ali Sher district on Tuesday. A powerful roadside bomb blast hit the tank in the Parnangaino Daag located in the Toru Awbah area of this district, killing one NATO soldier besides causing the tank to be destroyed. The report adds a few of the innocent by-standers were caught on the charge of the bomb attack by the enemy invaders. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

21-01-2010

Tank of invaders destroyed in Yaqubi, Khost

At third hour of the afternoon yesterday (2010 12 20), Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate blew up tank of invaders in Yaqubi, when the enemy patrolled area. In result, 2 soldiers were killed, 3 were wounded
Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid (Informal translation)

Enemy suffer casualties and fatalities in Mujahideen attack on Zazi Maidan district

On later Wednesday night, the Mujahideen attacked the headquarter of Zazi Maidan district with the missiles strikes, causing the enemy several casualties and fatalities in Khost province. Some 6 missiles struck the headquarter, damaging the facility to a great extent
Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Remote-controlled bomb blast kills 1 commander, 2 soldiers in Khost

On Thursday, Commander Mahabat Khan along with the 2 soldiers were killed by remote-controlled explosive devices while they were traveling to center of the Zazi Maidan district of Khost. In another news, on Wednesday, the Mujahideen fired mortar shells, five of which struck the post of the road making security soldiers in the Yaqubi district of this province, however, their casualties are unclear.
Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

24-01-2010

Mujahideen torch petroleum truck of U.S. forces

In Khost city, provincial capital of Khost province, Mujahideen ambushed a logistical convoy of the U.S. forces on Sunday morning, in which a petroleum truck was set on fire whose driver was badly wounded. Also Sunday, at least 2 Afghan soldiers were killed including one of their officers and another 2 injured when the enemy encountered a land mine planted by the Mujahideen in the Khalbisaat area of the Yaqubi district. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

1 Commander, 3 soldiers killed in Khost

On later Sunday, commander Zair Gul, the assistant of the military campaign along with 3 soldiers were killed in roadside bombing in the the province's Ali Sher district. Sunday's bombing occurred in the late afternoon hours while the commander and three soldiers were riding in a four-wheeled motorcycle in the Jargotai area of this district whose shattered wreckage is still lying at the explosion scene while the dead were taken away from the area
Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

26-01-2010

Mujahideen bomb rip through enemy vehicle in Khost

A roadside bomb hit a vehicle of the Afghan army near Khost city on Monday. The vehicle was fully destroyed in the bombing which occurred near Sara Bagh airfield, killing the soldiers inside the vehicle including a regional commander, said the Mujahideen from the region.
Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

27-01-2010

PRTs tanks eliminated in Khost

In the province's Qalander district, the Mujahideen carried out an ambush attack on the military convoy of the the PRTs on Wednesday. The report says three of the enemy's tanks were targeted by rocket propelled grenades in the Yalghank area of this district, taking the lives of the soldiers traveling inside the tanks, adding that the area was heavily bombed by the enemy following the attack, however, the Mujahideen suffered no losses during the bombardment. Also today, 2 Afghan soldiers were killed in the roadside bombing in the Lakano area of this district. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

29-01-2010

Remote-controlled bomb hit American tank in Khost

Some U.S soldiers along with one of their translator were killed on Thursday as their tank was struck by remote-controlled explosives in Yagubi district of Khost. The incident took place in Khalbisaat area of this district in which the tank was fully destroyed besides killing the soldiers on board. Moreover, on Wednesday, one of the U.S. tanks hit a roadside bomb in Nadir Shah Kot district of this province, as well. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

30-01-2010

U.S. tank struck by remote-controlled explosive devices in Khost Mujahideen, on Saturday, exploded a U.S armored tank through remote-control bomb in the Lakano area of the Khost city. According to the report, the remote-controlled bomb attack was carried out on U.S patrol tank on the road leading to Arma Khel area of this city, leaving the tank on fire with its soldiers who were inside killed or injured. Reported by Zabeehullah Mujahid

Photo: Khost province 2007-2009

Abu Dujana Al-Khurasani (May Allah accept him)*

Anti-IED robotic system

Foster-Miller Talon MkII/Micro Air Vehicle

Foster-Miller Talon Mk.II searches the immediate area while a Micro Air Vehicle (MAV) provides a 360-degree view as the two work together while searching for a simulated improvised explosive device (IED). Responder includes a disruptor-ready manipulator arm, wrist and gripper; three infrared illuminated color cameras and a laptop controller with gamepad controls. The laptop controller allows operation of TALON Responder from a safe distance up to 4,000 feet (1,200 meters). TALON EOD robots were the first military robots taken into Afghanistan in February 2002

A Micro Air Vehicle (MAV) takes off on a reconnaissance flight to search for a simulated improvised explosive device (IED) November 2006

Wardak, 2 June 2009

ISLAMI EMIRATE AFGHANISTAN

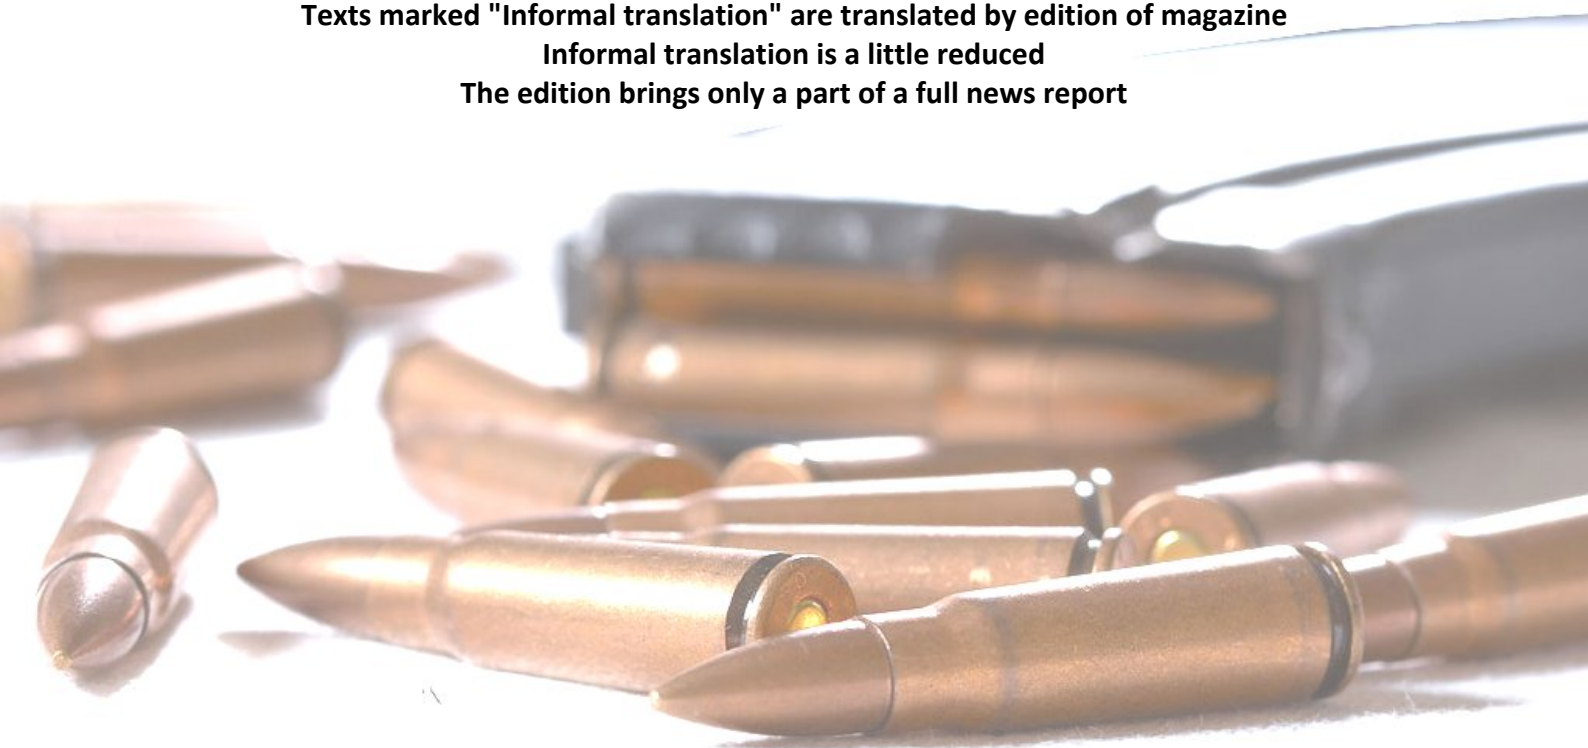

In FIGHT

In magazine is used message of official representatives of Emirate Afghanistan and photo of news agencies. Possible infidelities occur because of the editor of magazine only. This absolutely informal issue for visual support of a news report from Emirate Afghanistan

Do not forget mujahideen in your dua

Source of news and interviews:
Official sites of Islamic Emirate Afghanistan

Texts marked "Informal translation" are translated by edition of magazine
Informal translation is a little reduced
The edition brings only a part of a full news report

O ALLAH, MAKE THEM AND THEIR WEAPONRY A BOOTY FOR THE MUJAHIDEEN
YOU ARE OUR SUPPORT AND YOU ARE OUR ONLY VICTOR; BY YOUR ORDER WE ATTACK;
BY YOUR ORDER WE RETREAT AND BY YOUR ORDER WE FIGHT
O ALLAH, THE SKY IS YOURS; THE EARTH IS YOURS; THE SEA IS YOURS,
SO WHATEVER FORCES THEY HAVE IN THE SKY, DROP THEM.
DESTROY ALL THEIR FORCES IN EARTH AND SINK ALL THEIR FORCES IN SEA
O ALLAH, DEAL WITH THEM FOR VERILY THEY CAN NEVER DISABLE YOU
O ALLAH, RETALIATE UPON THEM, AFFLICT THEM LIKE YOU DID TO PHARAOH AND HIS NATION
O ALLAH DEFEAT THEM, DESTROY THEM O THE ALL-STRONG, THE ALL-MIGHTY
ALLAHU AKBAR
"HONOR, POWER AND GLORY BELONG TO ALLAH,
His MESSENGER AND THE BELIEVERS,
BUT THE HYPOCRITES KNOW NOT"

